

We Want To Hear From You

♦ About the Rhode Island Avenue Metro Station Area ♦

What stores do you want to see in your neighborhood? Do you think your community is pedestrian-friendly?

What: Community meeting to discuss Rhode Island Avenue development

When: Saturday April 2
9:30 am - 12:00 noon

Where: The Washington Center for Aging Services
2601 18th Street NE
Washington, DC

Complimentary breakfast served at 9:30 am

Meeting Purpose: The Rhode Island Avenue Metro Station vicinity is experiencing new development and change. See that the change reflects the needs of your neighborhood. Through lively small group discussions, voice your opinion on...

- Stores you would like to see in your community
- Sidewalks/streets that need to better accommodate pedestrians

Sponsored By: The University of Maryland Urban Studies and Planning Program, with support from your local Advisory Neighborhood Commissioners and the DC Office of Planning. For more information or to RSVP, please call 301-405-6793 or email us at umdurbanstudies@yahoo.com.

Please let us know if you are coming because space is limited and we want to accommodate you.

The Washington Center for Aging Services
2601 18th Street NE
Washington, DC

